

SOCIETY TO ATTEND RIDING CLUB RACES

President Likely to Be Present, as Two Boxes Have Been Reserved for White House.

Official life will be well represented at the race meet tomorrow, Saturday, and Monday at Benning, conducted by the Washington Riding and Hunt Club. President Wilson probably will be present, for two boxes in the clubhouse have been taken for the White House. Various army and navy officers have horses entered in the steeplechase or the service test, and one Congressman, Lathrop Brown of St. James, N. Y., has several entries. Mr. Brown, with his wife, who was a Miss Hooper, of Boston, owns the famous "Chambler" stable, the horses of Mr. Hooper, a multi-millionaire, having been raced for years under the name "Chambler".

Other well known stables will have horses at the jumps and on the flat at Benning. The stable of C. P. Fieldman, the millionaire yeast king; the horses of Phil Stevenson, of New York; "Tim" Donahue's stable from Baltimore, and some of August Belmont's horses will be raced. R. Hunter Dunaway, of Virginia, brother of H. Rosier Dunaway, of this city, has several entries, and many prominent Washington horse owners will have steeds on the track.

Polo Subscription.
In the "Washington-Middleburg Polo Subscription" event the eleven ponies bought in a block and then drawn for are owned by the following:
Gen. James A. Buchanan, Col. R. M. Thompson, William P. Hitt, Mrs. Thomas Laughlin, L. H. Mumford, Henry Sande, Middleburg, Basil Hall, Major R. G. Paxton, Oliver Hartman, Guernsey Munn, and James Phillips. Oliver Hartman's pony is the joint possession of him and Charles Munn, and Mr. Munn also has a half interest in the pony entered in the name of his brother.

Each subscriber to the pony event put up $300. Out of this, $100 for each of the entrants was taken to buy the ponies and the remaining $1,100 is to be used for the main leg of the race will get $200, three times the original investment.

Society Event.
The clubhouse at Benning will be filled with society folk the three days of the meet, after lying quiet and empty since last year. Incidentally, Washington detectives will be out at the track about to see that no one bets on the races.

Last year no open books were made, and if a few privately made bets were laid in the clubhouse the detectives did not learn what went on in those aristocratic precincts. But a few arrests were made later on a charge of betting. The men arrested were accused of having operated in the paddock. Authorities of the meet are openly discouraging betting, and unless the law is broken by individuals in casual instances no trouble of the sort is expected this year.

Among the box holders for the meet are the officers of the Washington Barracks, officers of Fort Myer, and officers of the navy yard.

John Hays Hammond
Has Job At $1.50 a Day:
Doesn't Get Full Time

John Hays Hammond, the Washington millionaire, has a job at $1.50 a day. His weekly income from this source is only $6, however, for the job only lasts about four days a week. Already he's earned $18.

Mr. Hammond is a witness in a $200,000 damage suit involving the title to certain oil land in the district of Oaxaca, Vera Cruz, Mexico, which has been on three weeks in a New York court. The $1.50 a day is witness fees.

WARDMAN ADDS TO BUSINESS PROPERTY

Harry Wardman has added to his business holdings by the purchase of the four-story building at 406 Thirteenth street northwest, just off Pennsylvania avenue, from Melvin F. Fischer, in part payment for the property, which is estimated to be worth about $80,000.

Mr. Wardman gave nine dwellings in Petworth, Ingleside, Holmeade Manor, Mt. Pleasant, Pleasant Plains, and other suburbs.

Mr. Wardman also transferred three apartment houses on R street, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets northwest to James Williams and W. B. F. Stewart. These apartments go as part payment for a large tract of land recently purchased in Buffalo, N. Y., on which Mr. Wardman has started an operation of more than 400 dwellings.

Large Auction Sale.
Another fine old Virginia estate will fall under the auctioneer's hammer when the Saegmuller place, in Alexandria county is sold at public auction a week from next Saturday. The terms of the sale are also unusual, for a deposit of $10,000 is required on the day of sale and the balance must be paid within ten days.

The Saegmuller estate has long been regarded as one of the prettiest in the vicinity of Washington. It is about four miles out from Washington, near the Washington Country Club, and contains a fraction over 300 acres. The stone dwelling is typical of the antebellum type of colonial architecture. The place will doubtless be purchased for subdivision purposes.

New Realty Firm.
W. H. H. Cissel has withdrawn from Cissel, Talbot & Co., and associated with his son, opened a new brokerage under the name of W. H. H. Cissel & Co. Their offices are in the Jordan building, at Thirteenth and G streets northwest, and it is proposed to conduct a general real estate business.

VOLUNTARY GIFTS MADE TO HOSPITAL

Employees of Adams Express Company and Agricultural Department Are Donors.

Although workers for the Emergency Hospital fund today are spending most of their time moving the headquarters from the old Cart Republic to Room 215, Corcoran building, subscriptions are being received without solicitation. A telephone call from the Adams Express Company today said that more than $5 has been raised among the employees of that company. An additional contribution also was received today from employees in the Agricultural Department, and it was accompanied by the announcement that all of the employees in this department have not yet been reached and that a considerable amount may yet be raised there.

It is understood subscriptions are still being circulated in the Pension Office and other Government departments. Chinatown, too, is going to make its contribution, but some of the most prominent among the 20 Chinese in Washington are so jealous about the showing that is to be made by their people that they are unwilling to announce any of the subscriptions until everything possible has been collected. Several of the leaders assisted in moving the headquarters today. After the meeting of the directors of the hospital, Friday, a permanent office force will be employed, and the campaign will proceed again in earnest.

The workers are far from being discouraged, and call attention to the fact that, while they failed to get as much money as they wanted, $12,500 is a large amount to be raised in Washington in twelve days, as compared with other campaigns that have been waged here, and it is generally predicted that the remaining $175,000 will be raised within the next few months.

HOPE FOR POISONED BANKER ABANDONED

Macon Man, Who Took Drug by Mistake, Weakens and Pleads for Death.

MACON, Ga., May 21.—All measures save those to ease his sufferings were abandoned today by physicians attending B. Sanders Walker, the young banker who last Thursday took a bi-chloride of mercury tablet by mistake. All hope of staving off death has been abandoned. Walker himself said today he wanted to die as soon as possible. "How much longer?" he demanded today, and then relapsed into unconsciousness before attendants could answer. The young banker is so weak that talking is an effort. His pulse mounted to 128 and his respiration remained at 31 through most of the morning. The sweating process, devised by physicians with the hope of carrying through the pores the poison which has saturated his system and which has paralyzed his kidneys refuse to pass, was abandoned today. It being apparent that its continuation would only further weaken the patient. He is still being fed olive oil and dehydrated food. Although his general condition was so much worse today, physicians said he might live for days. The general belief was, however, that he would meet the death he now desires within a few hours.
